General Undergraduate Program Information

Welcome to the Economics Department and we hope that you enjoy your courses this year. This Undergraduate Supplemental Calendar is intended to complement the lecture schedule and assist you in your choice of Economics courses. If you have any questions, please contact the Undergraduate Records Office located on the ground floor of Vari Hall, Room 1144, 416-736-5083.

WHY MAJOR IN ECONOMICS?

The Department of Economics within the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies (LA&PS) offers an academic program leading to degrees in Economics at the BA, BA Honours, and BA Specialized Honours levels, Business Economics at the BA level, and Financial and Business Economics at the BA Specialized Honours level. Through a unique teaching approach that blends theory and application, students in our program are introduced to the analytical and quantitative tools of economic analysis and learn to apply them to a wide range of individual and social problems which arise out of the conflict between unlimited wants and limited resources to satisfy them. They may focus on management issues in applied business fields or on financial markets and instruments or, more generally, on those aspects of social behaviour and those institutions which are involved in the allocation of scarce resources among alternative uses. In an intellectually stimulating environment, our students become skilled at identifying economic problems, at developing and applying economic theory to improve upon their understanding of the problems and their ability to solve them, and at evaluating the adequacy of their theoretical understanding through the use of data and empirical testing.

Our graduates are well prepared to begin or advance in a variety of careers in business, government, and the not-for-profit sector and to pursue graduate studies in economics or professional training in business, law, public administration, and other disciplines.

Undergraduate Program Descriptions

ECONOMICS

The Economics program focuses on those aspects of social behaviour and those institutions which are involved in the allocation of scarce resources among alternative uses in the pursuit of the satisfaction of human wants. Through a unique teaching approach that blends theory and application, students gain in-depth knowledge about how to apply the analytical and quantitative tools of economics to understanding and solving a wide range of individual and social problems about consumption and production in a variety of markets (product, labour, capital, etc., both nationally and internationally) which arise because of resource scarcity. Students will be able to pursue a degree in Economics at the BA, BA Honours, and BA Specialized Honours levels.

BUSINESS ECONOMICS

The Business Economics program integrates aspects of economics and business studies, focusing on the use of economic analysis and statistical methods to deal effectively with management problems in practical business fields. In applying economic theory to business management, students become familiar with the analytical and decision-making techniques used in the business world, and with the public and private institutional environments within which businesses operate. They gain insight into critical business topics such as strategic competition, the internal organization of firms, and international issues facing businesses in the changing global marketplace. Students will be able to pursue a degree in Business Economics at the BA level.

FINANCIAL AND BUSINESS ECONOMICS

The Business and Financial Economics program combines a rigorous quantitative and analytical approach with practical application designed for students who are particularly interested in pursuing careers in the financial sector and/or graduate education in financial economics. The program is highly structured and provides a broad understanding of the economic framework upon which financial theory is based. Through a blend of economic theory and applied tools of modern finance, students develop a solid knowledge of the microeconomic principles underlying financial markets and instruments, the macroeconomic role of finance, and the quantitative tools commonly used for analyzing financial markets. Students will be able to pursue a degree in Business and Financial Economics at the BA Specialized Honours level.

Academic Advising

Students are encouraged to arrange for an advising appointment once or twice a year. It can be harmful to rely solely upon the advice of friends who may not fully understand program requirements. For your first appointment, you will be required to bring with you a completed checklist of your program (available in this handbook and in the Department of Economics, 1144 Vari Hall) in which all your courses should be listed. The checklist should be kept up to date by each student and must be brought to all advising appointments. Please note that it is the responsibility of the student to ensure the courses completed meet all requirements for graduation, that courses meet prerequisites, and are not course exclusions of other courses already taken.

To speak with an advisor, you must book an appointment online using the Department website. You can book an appointment at the following link:

<http://econ.laps.yorku.ca/program-advising-information/book-an-appointment/>

DEGREE PROGRAMS IN ECONOMICS:

- BA - Economics
- BA – Business Economics
- Honours BA Economics
- Honours – Double Major, BA Economics & _____
- Honours – Major/Minor, BA Economics/ _____
- Honours Minor, BA in Economics
- Specialized Honours BA Economics
- Specialized Honours BA Financial & Business Economics

The BA program is a 90-credit degree, normally completed in 3 years. All Honours BA programs require 120-credits, normally completed in 4 years. Students who opt for programs in Economics are encouraged to register in honours if they have the required overall grade point average of C+ (5.0) or better

Important Academic Information for Students

Students should carefully read the following information on academic requirements, processes, and policies important to their academic progress and performance.

COURSE OUTLINES/SYLABI:

Course Outlines are posted on the LA&PS course listings website: <http://laps.yorku.ca/programs-courses/> . Please note that course outlines will be made available as the Economics Undergraduate Office receives them from the Course Directors. Course outlines contain important information on the course schedule, course requirements, evaluation methods, and course policies.

LECTURE SCHEDULE:

You can find the lecture schedule on the 'Current Student's' Web site: <http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm> and click on 'Search for Courses' under 'Courses and Enrolment'. Students should be aware that there could be changes made to the Summer and Fall/Winter lecture schedules. TO AVOID CONFUSION, PLEASE CHECK FOR POSSIBLE SCHEDULE CHANGES BEFORE CLASSES BEGIN on the above web site. Additionally, an up-to-date schedule for Economics courses will be posted across from the Economics Undergraduate Office (1144 Vari Hall) or you can also visit the Faculty of LA&PS, Department of Economics Website: www.econ.yorku.ca.

REPEATING PASSED OR FAILED COURSES:

A passed course is one in which the student has achieved a grade of D or better. There are two failing grades in the Faculty of LA&PS: E (marginal fail) and F (failure): <http://secretariat-policies.info.yorku.ca/policies/repeating-passed-or-failed-courses-for-academic-credit-policy/>

1. Students are allowed to repeat a passed or a failed course twice for academic degree or certificate credit. Students should note that course availability and space considerations may preclude the possibility of repeating a course in the session they choose.
2. When a student is allowed to repeat a course for academic degree or certificate credit, the most recent grade will be the grade of record and the only grade calculated in the student's grade point average (Major, Cumulative, Sessional and Overall). A course can be credited only once towards satisfaction of degree or certificate academic credit requirements.
3. The record of all courses taken will appear on the student's transcript, with first attempt (and second attempt, if applicable) designated as 'No Credit Retained' (NCR). The transcript legend will explain that the NCR designation means that neither the course credit nor grade have been included in the calculations of the student's grade point average.
4. The restrictions regarding repeating a passed or failed course also apply to cross-listed courses and course credit exclusions. (Course credit exclusions are pairs of courses that are recognized as being similar in content. Credit will not be given for a course deemed to be exclusion with a previously taken course. Course credit exclusions may not be used as substitutes to fulfil degree or program requirements unless designated as such by the relevant program).

COURSE RELIEF

York University allows eligible undergraduate students who have changed their program degree or major to exclude courses completed toward the prior major requirements from their Overall Cumulative GPA (OCGPA) and credit totals for their new program of study.

This policy aims to help students continue in and graduate from a new academic program. Please visit <http://myacademicrecord.students.yorku.ca/course-relief> for more information.

COURSE WITHDRAWAL

In the time period after the last day to drop a course without receiving a grade for a term up until the last day of classes for the term has ended, York University undergraduate students can still withdraw from a course. The course enrolment will remain in the University's records and on official transcripts, displayed with a "W" (Withdrawn from Course) notation.

This policy gives an option to students who are struggling in a course and/or who have become overwhelmed by their circumstances: it lets students minimize the impact on their academic standing, reduce their course load and focus on successfully completing their other courses.

COURSE CREDIT EXCLUSIONS:

Course descriptions will include a list of "Course Credit Exclusions" (or CCEs). Courses listed under this heading demonstrate significant overlap in the course material such that, you may not count both the listed course and the course credit exclusion for degree credit. Only one will count for credit.

If you take a course for which you have already previously taken the course credit exclusion, you will be considered to have repeated the course. The first course taken will not be counted for degree credit and will be excluded from averages; the second one taken will become the grade of record.

Course credit exclusions will not necessarily fulfill major requirements. You must check the handbook for your program of study requirements to ensure the course(s) you are taking will count for major credit.

Economics students should pay special attention to Administrative Studies (ADMS) and Mathematics (MATH) courses as many are CCEs to economics courses.

It is your responsibility to ensure you are taking the appropriate course(s) to fulfill your requirements for graduation. If you have any questions, please book an advising appointment as discussed above.

NCR NOTES:

NCR (No Credit Retained) Notes are listed in course descriptions. NRC Notes outline conditions for a course in terms of credits earned. For example, SC/MATH 1510 6.00 has the following NCR Note, "... May not be taken by any student who has taken or is currently taking another university course in mathematics or statistics except for SC/MATH 1500 3.00 or SC/MATH 1515 3.00 or SC/MATH 1520 3.00."

COURSE SUBSTITUTES:

Subject to course exclusions, program requirements/restrictions and residency requirements, the following courses are acceptable substitutes for the purpose of meeting the economics program requirements.

Program Course	Course Substitutes
AP/ECON 1000 3.00	GL/ECON 1000 3.00, GL/ECON 2500 3.00
AP/ECON 1010 3.00	GL/ECON 1010 3.00, GL/ECON 2510 3.00

PREREQUISITES/COREQUISITES:

Prerequisites/co-requisites must be successfully completed before another course can be taken. Students are responsible for fulfilling published prerequisite/co-requisite requirements. Prerequisites and co-requisites are listed in the course description and available online from the York Courses Web site and in this supplemental calendar.

Always check the departmental/divisional supplemental calendars to confirm prerequisite/co-requisite requirements for all courses in which you plan to enroll.

Please Note: AP/ECON2300 3.0 (Intermediate Microeconomics Theory I) must be successfully completed before AP/ECON2350 3.0 (Intermediate Microeconomics Theory II) and AP/ECON2400 3.0 (Intermediate Macroeconomics Theory I) must be successfully completed before AP/ECON2450 3.0 (Intermediate Macroeconomics Theory II). Students who take Theory II before Theory I (or concurrently) will be de-enrolled from Theory II.

CREDITS OUTSIDE THE MAJOR:

Students must complete a minimum of 18 credits outside their major in accordance with the following:

That none of these 18 credits are major courses, (or courses which are cross-listed with a major course; or a course offered by the major department which is not counted towards the major; or a course outside the major department which is a specified major requirement); not a general education course which has been used to satisfy the general education requirement. Extra general education courses will count as credits outside the major.

It is recommended that first year students take one carefully selected elective course to serve as an “escape hatch” to another field of study in the second year in case they find that majoring in Economics is not suitable and wish to change majors. Students wishing to change their majors must complete The Change My Program Request Form available on-line: <https://myacademicrecord.students.yorku.ca/program-change>.

GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS (Applies to all students):

The Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies general education curriculum provides students with the foundation of interdisciplinary knowledge, breadth, methods and the approaches necessary for successful liberal arts and professional education. General Education courses approved for credit expose students to ways of knowing and fundamental ideas spanning the humanities, natural sciences and social sciences. These courses also provide explicit instruction in critical analytical skills and thought and its communication in writing and speech.

- It is strongly recommended that students successfully complete (pass) their first General Education course within the first 24 credits.
- It is strongly recommended that all General Education courses are to be successfully completed (passed) within the first 48 credits.
- A maximum of 36 credits in General Education will count towards the degree. Students who are required to exceed the 36 credit maximum because of program/degree requirements must obtain permission to do so from their program of study.
- General education course lists and further information can be found at: <http://laps.yorku.ca/programs-of-study/laps-general-education-courses/>

General Education Requirements – Students who started program in Fall 2014-Present:

Students must take a minimum of 21 General Education credits from the approved list of LA&PS General Education courses as follows:

- 6.00 credits in Natural Science (NATS)
- A 9.00 credit approved General Education course in the social science OR humanities categories
- A 6.00 credit approved General Education course in the opposite category to the 9.00 credit course in social science or humanities already taken.

General Education Requirements - Students who started program PRIOR to Fall 2014:

Students must take a minimum of 24 credits of General Education chosen from Humanities, Modes of Reasoning, Natural Science and Social Science, including a minimum of six credits in each of Humanities, Natural Science and Social Science.

- General Education courses are offered at the 1000 and 2000-level and the list of approved courses may be found under the four main areas of Humanities, Modes of Reasoning, Natural Science and Social Science: http://www.yorku.ca/laps/courses/gen_education.html.
- A maximum of 9 credits in each of the four areas (Humanities, Modes of Reasoning, Natural Science and Social Science) will count towards fulfilment of General Education requirements.

STATISTICS + DATA + ECONOMETRICS REQUIREMENTS:

1. ALL students must take at least 3 credits in statistics: AP/ECON 2500 3.0.
2. ALL students must take AP/ECON 3210 3.0 or AP/ECON 3480 3.0 in addition to AP/ECON 2500 3.0.
3. Specialized Honours BA Economics majors must take, AP/ECON 3500 3.0 and AP/ECON 3210 3.0 and AP/ECON 4210 3.0 in addition to AP/ECON 2500 3.0.

Please review the checklists in this supplemental calendar for the list of courses required for your chosen degree program.

WRITING REQUIREMENT:

1. Some Honours and Specialized Honours programs in Economics (not Financial and Business Economics) require majors to take a minimum of 2-half courses (total of 6 credits) that have a writing component, which are so designated by a fourth-digit-9, for example, AP/ECON 4129 3.0 and AP/ECON 3249 3.0. You should look at the degree program checklists available in this Supplemental Calendar to see if the program you are following has a writing requirement.

2. A list of “writing” courses is available in this Economics supplemental calendar. To find out which writing courses are offered in a given semester students must look at the current lecture schedule of that given year.
3. The Writing Centre <http://www.yorku.ca/laps/writ> offers students a wide variety of opportunities to improve their writing skills. The goal of the instruction is to improve the student’s ability to write effectively in a range of academic situations. The Centre is located in S329 Ross Building 416-736-5134. The Centre offers one to one instruction and a number of group workshops on various issues related to writing effectively in a University environment. NOTE: Strong writing techniques are valuable in your studies and in the workforce.

Warning: A writing course and the non-writing equivalent course are considered to be credit exclusions to each other. Therefore, students cannot get credit for both AP/ECON3249 3.0 and AP/ECON3240 3.0 towards their BA program as they are the same course.

Students who do not have a 5.0 cumulative grade point average may proceed in Honours on warning providing they meet the year level and minimum cumulative grade point average to proceed.

Year Level	Total Earned Credits	Minimum Cumulative GPA

2. Written Work Only: Students may question the marking of specific pieces of work, or the overall course grade. Normally, however, only written work can be reassessed. It is not possible to re-evaluate class participation.
3. Possible Grade Changes: When a student requests a reappraisal, the original grade may be raised, lowered, or remain the same.
4. Reappraisal Request Forms: Students wishing to request the reappraisal of a final grade should fill out the appropriate form available from the Department/Division offering the course and submit to the same office.

ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY:

A central purpose of the University is to teach students to think independently and critically. Conduct that violates the ethical or legal standards of the University community or of one's program or specialization may result in serious consequences. They are therefore subject to severe penalties. Students are responsible for understanding the nature and consequences of these offences as contained in the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty. All students are expected to make themselves familiar with the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty (see section on University Policies, Procedures and Regulations) found in the York University Secretariat webpage:

<http://www.yorku.ca/secretariat/policies/document.php?document=69>

ACADEMIC PENALTIES:

Students whose academic record does not meet Faculty or program standards are subject to the academic penalties of Academic Warning, Required Withdrawal, Debarment Warning, Debarment, and Academic Probation.

Academic Warning:

Students whose cumulative grade point average falls below 4.0 at the end of any session, or who enter the Faculty with a grade point average equivalent to less than 4.0 on the York scale, receive an Academic Warning. Students on Academic Warning must achieve a cumulative grade point average of at least 4.0 within the next 24 credits taken, or earn a sessional grade point average of at least 5.0 in the session in which that 24th credit is completed and in each subsequent session until the cumulative grade point average reaches 4.0, or be required to withdraw. Students whose cumulative grade point average on at least 24 credits is below 2.5 will be required to withdraw.

Required to Withdraw:

Students whose academic record shows marked weakness may be required to withdraw from their studies for one year, during which they are encouraged to identify and remedy any problems which may have contributed materially to their failure to perform up to their potential, and to reflect on their reasons for pursuing a university education. The following regulations apply to required withdrawals.

Debarment Warning:

Students who have been required to withdraw from this Faculty or from another Faculty at York, or elsewhere receive a Debarment Warning upon continuing their studies in the Faculty. Students on Debarment Warning must achieve a cumulative grade point average of at least 4.0 within the next 24 credits taken or earn a sessional grade point average of at least 5.0 in the session in which that 24th credit is completed and in each subsequent session until the cumulative grade point average reaches 4.0, and must then maintain this average. Students who do not fulfill these conditions will be debarred from the University.

Debarment:

Students who fail to meet the debarment warning conditions outlined above will be debarred from the University. Debarment, the minimum period for which is normally two years, means that the student is no longer a student at York University.

Academic Probation:

Students who have been debarred and who subsequently resume their studies in the Faculty of LA&PS, whether by petitioning to continue without interruption or by reapplying for admission, receive an Academic Probation. Students on Academic Probation must meet the debarment warning conditions outlined above; otherwise, they will be debarred.

GRADING SYSTEM:

The letter-grade system is the fundamental system of assessment of performance in undergraduate programs at York University.

Grading Scale

Except for courses taken under the "Ungraded Option," courses in the Faculty of Liberal Arts & Professional Studies are graded according to the following scale.

Grade	Point Value	Definition
A+	9	Exceptional
A	8	Excellent
B+	7	Very good
B	6	Good
C+	5	Competent
C	4	Fairly competent
D+	3	Passing
D	2	Barely passing
E	1	Marginally failing
F	0	Failing

Note: The Point Values in the middle column above are used only in calculating students' Grade Point Averages, both sessional and cumulative; they are not designed to be used to calculate marks in courses.

GPA calculator: <http://www.yorku.ca/laps/students/gpa.html>

Grade Point Average (calculation):

Averages are calculated on the basis of the point value assigned to each letter grade.

A+	=	9	C	=	4
A	=	8	D+	=	3
B+	=	7	D	=	2
B	=	6	E	=	1
C+	=	5	F	=	0

To calculate an overall grade point average, take each course and multiply the number of credits by the grade point value. Add the results of this calculation and divide by the total number of credits. The result will be the overall grade point average.

(The examples below are for purposes of illustration only.)

EXAMPLES:

Course	Credit Value	Grade and Points Earned	Credit x Points=Total Points	Grade Point Average
XXX 6.0	6	C+ 5	6 X 5 = 30
XXX 6.0	6	F 0	6 X 0 = 0
XXX 9.0	9	B 6	9 X 6 = 54	102/24
XXX 3.0	3	B 6	3 X 6 = 18
Total Credits	24	Total Points	102	4.25

Course	Credit Value	Grade and Points Earned	Credit x Points=Total Points	Grade Point Average
XXX 3.0	3	C 4	3 X 4 = 12
XXX 6.0	6	B 6	6 X 6 = 36
XXX 9.0	9	C+ 5	9 X 5 = 45	121/22
XXX 4.0	4	B+ 7	4 X 7 = 28
Total Credits	22	Total Points	121	5.50

It should be noted that grades of E and F are failures and will be included in the calculation of grade point averages.

GRADUATION:

If you plan to graduate, you must apply by the deadline. For information about graduation application procedures, a graduation checklist, to verify your official name, a ceremony schedule, and other information about graduation, please visit: <http://www.yorku.ca/mygraduation>

Petitions

It is highly recommended for students submitting a petition in the Faculty of Liberal Arts & Professional Students meet with an academic advisor. Students have the opportunity to petition for special consideration regarding academic regulations, as stated in the York University Calendar. For example, students who wish to drop a course after the drop date, must petition for exemption from the drop deadline. It should be noted that a petition is a request for the waiver of an existing regulation; it cannot be used to create a regulation (for example: a degree program that does not exist). Normally the Petitions Committee will not consider petitions more than one year beyond the date of the release of grades for the session to which the petition relates.

For information regarding petitions in the Faculty of Liberal Arts & Professional Studies please visit: <http://laps.yorku.ca/office-of-the-faculty-council/undergraduate-academic-petitions/>.

Deferred Standing

A Deferred Standing (extension) is a process by which students reach an agreement with the course director for an extension to the deadline if they are unable to write their final examination at the scheduled time or submit term work before the Faculty deadline to submit final grades.

The course director may grant deferred standing in the course. In doing so, a date is set for writing the exam or submitting the outstanding work. In order to qualify for Deferred Standing, a student must complete the standard Deferred Standing Agreement form and submit relevant supporting documentation to the department offering the course. This form and further information are available on-line: <http://www.registrar.yorku.ca/exams/deferred>.

Senate Policy states, "Normally requests for deferred standing must be communicated within one week (7 calendar days) following a missed examination or the last day to submit course work." (The period during which the University is officially closed for December holidays and statutory holidays is not counted in the determination of deadline days.)

It is the responsibility of students to make arrangements with the course director to complete the course and file the Deferred Standing Agreement form with the appropriate departmental/unit office by the deadline specified on the form. Appropriate Documentation verifying the circumstances for the missed final examination must be provided at the time of requesting the Deferred Standing from the Course Director.

WHAT IS APPROPRIATE DOCUMENTATION?

Medical Circumstances

Exams missed due to medical circumstances must be supported by an attending physician's statement or a statement by a psychologist or a counsellor. Student's must see a physician within 48 hours of the missed exam. The Attending Physician's Statement form can be found at http://registrar.studentsqa.uit.yorku.ca/sites/registrar/files/pdf/attend_physician_statement.pdf

The physician's statement must include the following:

- i) Full name, mailing address, telephone number of the physician.
- ii) State the nature of the illness and its duration (i.e., specific dates covered).
- iii) An indication of whether the illness and/or medication prescribed would have SERIOUSLY affected the student's ability to study and perform over the period in question.

NOTE: the physician's office may be contacted to verify that the statement was actually completed by the Physician.

NON-MEDICAL CIRCUMSTANCES:

Exams missed due to non-medical circumstances must be supported by appropriate documentation, i.e., death certificates, obituary notice, automobile accident reports, airline/bus ticket receipt for emergency travel (with the date of booking on the ticket), etc. Airline/train/bus ticket/receipts for emergency travel must indicate destination, departure, and return dates. Having to work at the time of the exam or non-emergency travel are not considered valid excuses for missing the exam.

The manner in which the missed exam (which has been legitimately documented) is handled is at the discretion of the course director, and should be outlined by the instructor within the first two weeks of the course. If a course director does not agree to consider requests for deferred standing students then may file a petition with the relevant Faculty-level committee for consideration within the established deadline.

The restrictions for FW16/17 courses will be lifted sometime in mid-July allowing non-majors to enroll in economics courses (space permitting). Economics majors are encouraged to NOT miss their initial enrolment time as courses they may need to graduate could fill up once the restrictions are lifted.

Important Program Notes

Using the Degree Planning Worksheet

This worksheet has been created by the Department of Economics as a program planning tool for students admitted to an economics program. Students should use this worksheet in addition to the University Academic Calendar and the Degree Progress Report for the most accurate summary of remaining degree requirements. Students are expected to have the necessary pre- or corequisite completed in order to enrol in any course.

Academic Advising

It is recommended that students speak with an academic advisor at least once a year. Economics students receive advising directly from the Department of Economics. If you are majoring in an Economics program, please visit the undergraduate office for advice about program and general degree requirements as well as other issues you may be experiencing. Book an appointment, here.

Transfer Credits

Students with transfer credit can refer to their Transfer Credit Statement to determine what courses you have received transfer credit for. For more information on transfer credit, it is recommended that students speak with an Academic Advisor in the Department of Economics.

Pre- and Corequisites

Prerequisites and co-requisites must be successfully completed before another course can be taken. Students are responsible for fulfilling published prerequisite/co-requisite requirements. Prerequisites and co-requisites are listed in the course description and available online from the York Courses Website.

Choosing Free Choice Courses

Free choice courses may be chosen from any area of study and taken in any year as long as you meet the prerequisites. Use these courses to explore different areas of study. Free choice courses can include economics.

Choosing Outside Major Courses

Students must complete a minimum of 18 credits outside of their major. An outside major course can be any course that is not part of your major. This means any economics course will not count towards your outside major requirement. This also includes courses that are cross-listed or course credit exclusions (CCEs).

Choosing General Education Courses

Students must take a minimum of 21 General Education credits from an approved list of general education courses in the Faculty of Liberal Arts & Professional Studies. Students will take a minimum of 6.0 credits of Natural Science (NATS), 6.0 credits of Social Science (SOSC), and 6.0 credits of Humanities (HUMA). Students will take a total of 9 credits in one subject area. It is strongly recommended that students successfully complete (pass) their first General Education course within the first 24 credits and complete all General Education courses within the first 48 credits. Students cannot take more than 36 credits in General Education credits.

Repeating Courses

A passed course is one in which the student has achieved a grade of D or better. Students are allowed to repeat a passed or a failed course twice for academic degree or certificate credit. When a student is allowed to repeat a course for academic degree or certificate credit, the second grade will be the grade of record and the only grade calculated in the student's grade point average. A course can be credited only once towards satisfaction of degree or certificate academic credit requirements. Students can refer to Senate Policy on Repeating Passed or Failed Courses for more information.

Course Credit Exclusions

Course descriptions will include a list of "Course Credit Exclusions" (or CCEs). Courses listed under this heading demonstrate significant overlap in the course material such that, you may not count both the listed course and the course credit exclusion for degree credit. Only one will count for credit. If you take a course for which you have already previously taken the course credit exclusion you will be considered to have repeated the course. The first course taken will not be counted for degree credit and will be excluded from averages; the second one taken will become the grade of record. Course credit exclusions will not necessarily fulfill major requirements. You must check the handbook for your program of study requirements to ensure the course(s) you are taking will count for major credit.

Full-time Status Requirement

Full-time undergraduate students are defined as those taking nine credits or more per academic term. Full-time status is important to consider for students studying at York on a Visa or students who rely on OSAP or financial aid.

Residency Requirement

Students must complete a minimum of 30 credits (5 full courses) including at least half (50 per cent) of the major credits must be completed at York University.

Upper Level Course Requirements

The Faculty of Liberal Arts & Professional Studies requires students in a 90 credit Bachelor of Arts degree program to complete a minimum of 18 credits at the 3000 or 4000 level.

Graduation Requirement

Students must successfully complete (pass) at least 90 credits that meet the Faculty's degree and program requirements with a cumulative grade point average of at least 4.00 (C).

Important Program Notes

Using the Degree Planning Worksheet

This worksheet has been created by the Department of Economics as a program planning tool for students admitted to an economics program. Students should use this worksheet in addition to the University Academic Calendar and the Degree Progress Report for the most accurate summary of remaining degree requirements. Students are expected to have the necessary pre- or corequisite completed in order to enrol in any course.

Academic Advising

It is recommended that students speak with an academic advisor at least once a year. Economics students receive advising directly from the Department of Economics. If you are majoring in an Economics program, please visit the undergraduate office for advice about program and general degree requirements as well as other issues you may be experiencing. Book an appointment, here.

Transfer Credits

Students with transfer credit can refer to their Transfer Credit Statement to determine what courses you have received transfer credit for. For more information on transfer credit, it is recommended that students speak with an Academic Advisor in the Department of Economics.

Pre- and Corequisites

Prerequisites and co-requisites must be successfully completed before another course can be taken. Students are responsible for fulfilling published prerequisite/co-requisite requirements. Prerequisites and co-requisites are listed in the course description and available online from the York Courses Website.

Choosing Free Choice Courses

Free choice courses may be chosen from any area of study and taken in any year as long as you meet the prerequisites. Use these courses to explore different areas of study. Free choice courses can include economics.

Choosing Outside Major Courses

Students must complete a minimum of 18 credits outside of their major. An outside major course can be any course that is not part of your major. This means any economics course will not count towards your outside major requirement. This also includes courses that are cross-listed or course credit exclusions (CCEs).

Choosing General Education Courses

Students must take a minimum of 21 General Education credits from an approved list of general education courses in the Faculty of Liberal Arts & Professional Studies. Students will take a minimum of 6.0 credits of Natural Science (NATS), 6.0 credits of Social Science (SOSC), and 6.0 credits of Humanities (HUMA). Students will take a total of 9 credits in one subject area. It is strongly recommended that students successfully complete (pass) their first General Education course within the first 24 credits and complete all General Education courses within the first 48 credits. Students cannot take more than 36 credits in General Education credits.

Repeating Courses

A passed course is one in which the student has achieved a grade of D or better. Students are allowed to repeat a passed or a failed course twice for academic degree or certificate credit. When a student is allowed to repeat a course for academic degree or certificate credit, the second grade will be the grade of record and the only grade calculated in the student's grade point average. A course can be credited only once towards satisfaction of degree or certificate academic credit requirements. Students can refer to Senate Policy on Repeating Passed or Failed Courses for more information.

Course Credit Exclusions

Course descriptions will include a list of "Course Credit Exclusions" (or CCEs). Courses listed under this heading demonstrate significant overlap in the course material such that, you may not count both the listed course and the course credit exclusion for degree credit. Only one will count for credit. If you take a course for which you have already previously taken the course credit exclusion you will be considered to have repeated the course. The first course taken will not be counted for degree credit and will be excluded from averages; the second one taken will become the grade of record. Course credit exclusions will not necessarily fulfill major requirements. You must check the handbook for your program of study requirements to ensure the course(s) you are taking will count for major credit.

Full-time Status Requirement

Full-time undergraduate students are defined as those taking nine credits or more per academic term. Full-time status is important to consider for students studying at York on a Visa or students who rely on OSAP or financial aid.

Residency Requirement

Students must complete a minimum of 30 credits (5 full courses) including at least half (50 per cent) of the major credits must be completed at York University.

Upper Level Course Requirements

The Faculty of Liberal Arts & Professional Studies requires students in a 90 credit Bachelor of Arts degree program to complete a minimum of 18 credits at the 3000 or 4000 level.

Graduation Requirement

Students must successfully complete (pass) at least 90 credits that meet the Faculty's degree and program requirements with a cumulative grade point average of at least 4.00 (C).

Important Program Notes

Using the Degree Planning Worksheet

This worksheet has been created by the Department of Economics as a program planning tool for students admitted to an economics program. Students should use this worksheet in addition to the University Academic Calendar and the Degree Progress Report for the most accurate summary of remaining degree requirements. Students are expected to have the necessary pre- or corequisite completed in order to enrol in any course.

Academic Advising

It is recommended that students speak with an academic advisor at least once a year. Economics students receive advising directly from the Department of Economics. If you are majoring in an Economics program, please visit the undergraduate office for advice about program and general degree requirements as well as other issues you may be experiencing. Book an appointment, here.

Transfer Credits

Students with transfer credit can refer to their Transfer Credit Statement to determine what courses you have received transfer credit for. For more information on transfer credit, it is recommended that students speak with an Academic Advisor in the Department of Economics.

Pre- and Corequisites

Prerequisites and co-requisites must be successfully completed before another course can be taken. Students are responsible for fulfilling published prerequisite/co-requisite requirements. Prerequisites and co-requisites are listed in the course description and available online from the York Courses Website.

Choosing Free Choice Courses

Free choice courses may be chosen from any area of study and taken in any year as long as you meet the prerequisites. Use these courses to explore different areas of study. These include economics courses.

Choosing Outside Major Courses

Students must complete a minimum of 18 credits outside of their major. An outside major course can be any course that is not part of your major. This means any economics course will not count towards your outside major requirement. This also includes courses that are cross-listed or course credit exclusions (CCEs).

Choosing General Education Courses

Students must take a minimum of 21 General Education credits from an approved list of general education courses in the Faculty of Liberal Arts & Professional Studies. Students will take a minimum of 6.0 credits of Natural Science (NATS), 6.0 credits of Social Science (SOSC), and 6.0 credits of Humanities (HUMA). Students will take a total of 9 credits in one subject area. It is strongly recommended that students successfully complete (pass) their first General Education course within the first 24 credits and complete all General Education courses within the first 48 credits. Students cannot take more than 36 credits in General Education credits.

Repeating Courses

A passed course is one in which the student has achieved a grade of D or better. Students are allowed to repeat a passed or a failed course twice for academic degree or certificate credit. When a student is allowed to repeat a course for academic degree or certificate credit, the second grade will be the grade of record and the only grade calculated in the student's grade point average. A course can be credited only once towards satisfaction of degree or certificate academic credit requirements. Students can refer to Senate Policy on Repeating Passed or Failed Courses for more information.

Course Credit Exclusions

Course descriptions will include a list of "Course Credit Exclusions" (or CCEs). Courses listed under this heading demonstrate significant overlap in the course material such that, you may not count both the listed course and the course credit exclusion for degree credit. Only one will count for credit. If you take a course for which you have already previously taken the course credit exclusion you will be considered to have repeated the course. The first course taken will not be counted for degree credit and will be excluded from averages; the second one taken will become the grade of record. Course credit exclusions will not necessarily fulfill major requirements. You must check the handbook for your program of study requirements to ensure the course(s) you are taking will count for major credit.

Residency Requirement

Students must complete a minimum of 30 credits (5 full courses) including at least half (50 per cent) of the major credits must be completed at York University.

Full-time Status Requirement

Full-time undergraduate students are defined as those taking nine credits or more per academic term. Full-time status is important to consider for students studying at York on a Visa or students who rely on OSAP or financial aid.

Upper Level Course Requirements

The Faculty of Liberal Arts & Professional Studies requires students in a 120 credit Bachelor of Arts degree program to complete 36 upper level credits – 18 credits at the 3000 or 4000 level and 18 credits at the 4000 level.

AP/ECON1530 3.00 INTRODUCTORY MATHEMATICAL ECONOMICS I:

This course presents and analyzes a sequence of basic ideas, topics and problems arising in Economics. For each idea/topic/problem relevant mathematical ideas and techniques are recalled and/or derived so as to provide a deeper understanding of the Economic issue and how it can be resolved, if necessary. The notion of Quantity Demanded is first addressed by expressing quantity demanded as a linear function of price where both the slope and intercept embed important Economics ideas. This sequence leads naturally to the notion of Revenue (the product of quantity demanded and price) where nonlinear functions are analyzed using mathematical techniques that include derivatives. This sequence culminates with notions of prices that maximize revenue subject to a given demand function. A large number of such topic sequences involving univariate functions are examined.

Prerequisite: Grade 12U Advanced Functions or equivalent.

Prerequisites/Co-requisites: AP/ECON 1000 3.00 or AP/ECON 1010 3.00, or equivalent. Strongly recommended completion: high-school calculus or equivalent.

AP/ECON1540 3.00 INTRODUCTORY MATHEMATICAL ECONOMICS II:

This course extends the analysis of basic Economics ideas, topics and problems begun in AP/ECON 1530 3.00. Again, relevant mathematical ideas and techniques are recalled and/or derived so as to provide a deeper understanding of Economic issues and how they can be resolved. The issues and problems covered require functions of more than one variable for their resolution. The notion of Quantity Supplied is combined with the notion of Quantity Demanded and notions of Market Equilibrium are introduced and discussed. Equilibria are evaluated through the introduction of mathematical notions and properties of systems of equations, eventually in matrix form. A deeper understanding of theories of demand (supply) and the foundations of demand (supply) functions is developed through the introduction of mathematical notions of unconstrained and constrained optimization and linear and nonlinear programming. As in AP/ECON 1530 3.0, many topics and issues are addressed and problem framing and problem solving abilities are enhanced.
